Tuscarawas Election.

The official abstract gives Brough 28 majority. Vallandigham run nearly 100 behind his ticket in this and nearly every other county of the same size in the State. His vote (2885) is larger than this county gave Chase, or Dennison, for Governor. Pugh and the State ticket have fifty odd majority, 'and received an average of 2950 votes, being greater than ever was given any Democrats in the county, except last fall, when many Republicans voted with 'us. Mr. Harmount, for Senator, has 53 majority, and is, we think, elected over the army vote. Mr. Walter, for Representative, has 38 majority; Kinsey, for Clerk, 55; Patrick, for Probate Judge, 85; Dye, for Sheriff, 121; Chadwell, for Recorder, 59; McClellan, for Commissioner, 28; Augel, for Surveyor, 89, and Porter, for Infirmary Director, 75 majority on home vote.

Hagan, Opposition, has 30 majority for Treasurer, and Neely, Republican, has 58 majority for Prosecutor. Official Vote for State Senator

Vote of the 80th.

We learn that the whole vote of this regiment was 243, of which 229 were for Brough, and 14 for Vallandigham .-On county officers there were some 70 votes polled by voters of this county, of which all but some five or six were given the Republican candidates, except Harmount, who got eighteen votes.

Ohio Election.

Returns from all the counties, unofficial, elect John Brough Governor by some 60,000 majority, and the balance of the Republican State ticket by about 50,000 majority.

Ohio Legislature.

In the Senate, the Republicans have 22 out of 24 members, and in the house all but 15 are said to be Republicans.

Iowa

Thanksgiving.

In the midst of a reign of terror, unhappiness and official profligacy, such as the people of this country never before witnessed, Mr. Lincoln has issued a proclamation for a day of thanksgiving. which is set for the - day of November. It should have been the 4th day of March, 1865.

Constitutional Provisions. The Constitution of the State of Ohio contains these provisions:

"ARTICLE V.

"ELECTIVE PRANCHISE. SECTION 1. Every white male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a resident of the State one year next preceding the election, and of the county, township or word, in which he resides, such time as may be provided by law, shall have the qualifications of on elector and be entitled to vote at all elections."

Section 5. No person in the military naval or marine service of the United States, shall, by being stationed in any garrison or military or naval station within the State, be considered a resident of this State.

a law was passed authorizing the soldiers raised before the twentysixth. to vote in their camps, whether stationed in or out of the State of Ohio.

The 6th section, article 1, of the Constitution, says:

"There shall be no slavery in this State nor involuntary servitude, unless for the punishment of crime. Query: Can the Legislature abrogate that section of the Constitution and pass a law authorising persons to bring into Chio and hold slaves? If not, can it abrogate any other section of the By request of a number of Ladies of 320,000 white population. Constitution?

Although not disposed to favor or recom-mend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects: I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoof and's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcohol mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robe Shosmaker, Eq., for the removal of this probable was the pression of the probability of the removal of this probability. judice by proper tests, and for encouragements try them, when suffering from great a long continued debility.
